REMARKS

The Notice alleges that the subject application fails to comply with the requirements of 37 C.F.R. 1.821-1.825 and requires the submission of an initial computer readable form (CRF) of the sequence listing, an initial paper or compact disk copy of the sequence listing and a statement that the sequence listing information recorded in the CRF is identical to the written (on the paper or compact disk) sequence listing.

In response, applicants submit an initial paper copy of the Sequence Listing attached hereto as Exhibit B in compliance with the requirements of 37 C.F.R. §1.823. In addition applicants submit herewith an initial computer readable form (CRF) copy of the "Sequence Listing" attached hereto as Exhibit C as required by 37 C.F.R. §1.824. Further, applicants submit herewith as Exhibit D a Statement in Accordance with 37 C.F.R. §1.821(f) and (g), certifying that the initial computer readable form containing the nucleic acid and/or amino acid sequences contains the same information which was submitted as the "Sequence Listing" and that the attached sequence listing does not contain any new matter.

In addition, applicants note that the applicants' representative was informed, in a September 16, 2004 telephone conference with Mr. Mark Spencer of the U.S Patent and Trademark Office's Sequence Help Desk, that the amino acids recited on page 6, lines 4-8 of the subject application do not require a sequence listing as these amino acids are in no particular order.

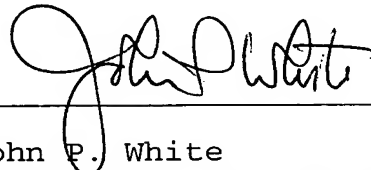

If a telephone interview would be of assistance in advancing prosecution of the subject application, applicants'
